

Darin Henley Darin & Anita on Grand Stand syndicated radio show.

What an incredible song "I'm Ready Willin' & Able"

The second song out of the gate for (KCO) Ken Knox & Company following their first release "You" and also "Carolina Shuffle".

Anita & I have all the cuts in rotation on the show with "I'm Ready Willin' & Able" climbing the chart. With request coming in each week.

We have interviewed Ken several times always a Great interview.

Ken, keep Knockin' Em' out of the park, you and the guys are Great.

The Chairmen Legacy is Alive & Kickin'.

Can't wait for the next release.

One beautiful thing about Riverbend is there are other acts playing on other stages at the same time. For those that chose not to see CeeLo, a great act – KCO (Ken Knox & Company)– was playing on the Unum Stage. Riverbend got nothing but positive feedback on them.

As a Chairmen of the Board fan for more than 30 years, I'm thrilled that Ken Knox is keeping this distinctive groove alive after the passing of General Johnson. And Ken is stepping out to make his own mark in the Carolina beach music realm and beyond.

Just turn on your radio and you know that a momentum shift toward the throwback sounds of the '60s, '70s and '80s is occurring. And Ken, who is as deeply enmeshed in that wonderful era as any musician, has raised the bar for others seeking "that sound."

As with "You," "I'm Ready, Willin' & Able" touches several genres beyond the beach music realm. The General Johnson/Invictus/Motown influence is evident in this beautifully arranged piece. And Ken and Thomas Hunter masterfully deliver the lyrical goods.

This song is soulful, stylish, smooth – and definitely shaggable. It's an awesome groove that will definitely have the girls (and guys) on the dance floor – and singing along.
